REPORT OF ROAD AGENT

All black top roads were patched and oiled. We applied a total of 18,018 gal. of oil. The Jaffrey road from Jaffrey line to No. 4 School was graded and given a prime and seal coat of 7,475 gals. This road is now tarred from Route 101 to Jaffrey line.

1,262 yards of gravel were put on the roads this year, not as much as we would liked to have put on, being an extra dry year. We decided the best policy was to retain what we had by surface treating with calcium chloride and dragging. We applied chloride on eleven roads, and spot-treated in many places, using twenty-four tons. I recommend a more extensive use of this chemical.

Ditches and culverts were cleaned on all roads, and most of them graded with tractor and grader.

Bushes were cut on several roads and a number of dangerous trees and rocks were removed.

Three iron bridges were repaired and painted two coats of red lead.

The Harrington Hill was widened, graded and gravelled, thus eliminating snow drifting, which was an expensive item.

The special drainage project on Mechanic street was completed. This street should now be re-surfaced and tarred.

WARREN H. PLIMPTON, Agent

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF CEMETERY

Two additional Trust Funds for Perpetual Care of lots were provided during the past year, bringing the total now to thirty-seven. One lot was sold.

In the recently acquired Frothingham Addition a new road was built through from a point along the state highway beside the lake, to the "old common road" on the north side of the cemetery. A gate has been supplied for each of these two entrances. Clusters of lilacs were set out beside this road and near the northern entrance by the wall.

A tract of land some sixty feet wide has been filled and grassed in this area. About three acres of land, together with the lots in this territory, are now kept mowed and trimmed, appreciably improving the appearance of the entire cemetery.

Iron stakes, painted and numbered to correspond with the granite posts through the center which mark the cemetery into sections, have been placed along the north and south sides to aid in locating graves.

The town is indebted to Messrs. John A. Grau and Ned M. Pierce who have each contributed material and labor without financial compensation to this improvement.

REPORT OF THE DUBLIN SCHOOL BOARD

To the Citizens of the Dublin School District:

We submit the one hundred and twentieth annual report of the School Board.

In view of the present world emergency we feel justified in departing somewhat from the routine reports of normal years. We shall emphasize in this report the manner in which we feel the school program as planned and carried out over a period of years is today gearing into community, national and world needs.

In the first place we feel that all the fine facilities of the school are being used to educate and encourage the pupils in community service.

Special activities such as Hot Lunches, Manual Training, Handicraft, and Interscholastic Games are developing group consciousness, practical skill in doing things, and a cooperative spirit which is invaluable training for later community life.

The Good Citizenship Award, the Bird Contest, and the Garden Project are all effective measures toward the development of the appreciation of community life, its opportunities and its responsibilities.

The Garden Project sponsored by the Dublin Garden Club enlisted the active interest of more than fifty children in the towns of Dublin, Harrisville, and Nelson. In these days when gardens are so essential a part of our national defense we feel that this project is especially valuable.

During the present crisis air raid shelters in the building have been equipped and the pupils are being drilled for emergencies.

We are especially glad that it is possible because of our adequate building facilities to sponsor community gatherings and activities, house comfortably the Red Cross work shop, provide as adequate an air raid shelter for children as there is in this section of the state, and carry on normal school activities without any impairment of work.

The School Board is grateful for the vision of a community that makes these things possible. It wishes to express its appreciation for the cooperation of the teachers, janitor, superintendent and community in the year just past.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS TO THE DUBLIN SCHOOL BOARD

I am submitting herewith my eighth annual report of the Dublin Consolidated School, together with the statistical table and summary, and also the report of Miss Margaret E. Harris, our school nurse.

The enrollment for the school year 1940-1941 was 103, and the enrollment to January 31st of the present year is 95. This enrollment shows an average membership of 93.14, as compared with 91.58 for the school year 1940-41, and an average attendance of 86.38 as against 82.18 last year.

We have been fortunate in having had less absence on account of illness up to date than was the case a year ago.

There have been no changes in the teaching force in the Dublin Consolidated School this year, and Mrs. Whitcomb has continued her efficient supervision of the music, and Miss Harris has continued as school nurse.

There were eight pupils graduated from this school last June, six of whom entered Peterborough High School. Eighteen pupils from Dublin were registered in Peterborough High School during the first half year.

The work of the school has been carried on effectively by a well trained and capable teaching staff. The aim of this school upon its consolidation more than ten years ago was that it should be so organized as to give the most effective community service possible. This aim has been kept before our teachers throughout this decade, and the showing made by its graduates in secondary schools has justified this type of organization.

New responsibilities and duties have been placed upon our schools by wartime conditions. I am sure that both teachers and pupils will do their part in meeting these responsibilities.

Rapidly rising costs must be met by adequate appropriations. The increased cost of living makes it necessary that our school board ask for a reasonable increase in salaries.

There is a certainty that not only will the cost of school supplies increase from 10% to 25% during the coming year, but certain items will be very difficult to obtain at any price. We have tried to lay in as adequate a supply of materials as possible before prices advance, and we should use every possible economy in making these supplies go as far as possible.

It has been a privilege to be associated with the schools of Dublin during the past few years, and I have appreciated keenly the support of a progressive and sympathetic school board. This support has made possible the progress of the Dublin Consolidated School.
